

HAWAII

Alaska

California

Oregon

Washington State

The Pacific Region

By: Milena and Julia

California

California is the #1 populated state in America. L.A. #2 most populated city. It has about 370,000 people in L.A. This means that there is a lot of people in the state of California.

What can you do in California?

California is a fun state full of fun things to do for kids and adults. For example, for kids there is Disneyland, Universal Studios, and Seaworld. If you are a tourist then there is something for you to see. You could go to the Golden Gate Bridge or go and see the Hollywood sign.

Hawaii

Hawaii is a group of small islands that are surrounded by the Pacific Ocean. Hawaii is the best place to watch volcanoes erupt. There are several islands in Hawaii. They are Maui, Oahu, Honolulu, Kauai, and more!

What can you do in Hawaii?

In Hawaii, you can watch volcanoes erupt in the volcano parks. You can go to the wet 'n' wild park or maybe just relax and lay on the beach. If you are a tourist and would like to see something cool, you should go to see the state park, the lava tree, or the rainbow falls.

Washington State

Washington State is in the Pacific Northwest area. The nickname for Washington State is EverGreen State. It is also the 18th most expensive state of the 50 United states. It's also the leading lumber producer. It is the only state that is named after a United States president.

What can you do in Washington State?

In Washington state they have so many things to do. Did you know that the first Starbucks was found in Seattle. When people come back from work they could relax and get a cup of coffee at Starbucks. Also, if you want to go somewhere and explore then go to the zoos, museums, aquariums, The Seattle Great wheel, or even the Wild Waves theme park. The nickname for Washington State is EverGreen State.

Oregon

Oregon has more ghost towns than any other state or place. Oregon's flag has two separate designs? Oregon has the largest cheese factory too. Did you know that Oregon's birthday is on Valentines Day (February 14)?

What can you do in Oregon?

You can do a lot of things in Oregon. For example, they have lodges to stay in and they have zoo to see the animals. You can also go hiking in the mountains or if you would like to do something fun then you could go to an amusement park.

Alaska

Did you know that Alaska is almost half the size of America? Alaska has glaciers, national parks, forest, cruise, and wildlife. However that have sanctuaries for animals like a zoo! Lastly if you want to go somewhere cold and they have lodges go to Alaska!

What can you do in Alaska

You can do lots of things in Alaska to keep you busy. The most popular thing to do there is to go on cruises and go fishing. If you just want to explore Alaska then you can go see the national parks, glaciers, and glaciers!

Thank You

Thank you for watching our powerpoint. I hope you learned lots about the Pacific Region.